(U) CALIFORNIA*(U) Davis – Davis Police Officer Killed, Suspect Dead

(U) A Davis officer was shot and killed last night and the suspected gunman was found dead in a home, police said. Natalie Corona, 22, was taken to the hospital, where she later died, Davis Police Chief Darren Pytel said. The gunman was found dead early this morning. Police said it appears he died from a self-inflicted gunshot wound. The shooting happened just before 7 p.m. in downtown Davis. Corona was shot while responding to a three-vehicle crash, police said. The suspect ran from the scene, prompting a manhunt throughout downtown Davis. Multiple law enforcement agencies from the region responded and helped with the search.

(U) Foresthill – Two Arrested After Butane Honey Oil Explosion Destroys Home

(U) Two suspects are facing charges after a home they were allegedly making honey oil was destroyed, according to the Placer County Sheriff's Office. The sheriff's office said the incident happened back in December in Foresthill. The explosion was reportedly caused by a butane honey oil lab in the home. Detectives found that the suspects were using two closed-loop systems typically used to extract and manufacture concentrated cannabis.

(U) NATIONAL*(U) Massachusetts – Man Sentenced for Hospital Cyberattack

(U) Boston – A Massachusetts man was sentenced yesterday to more than 10 years in prison for carrying out a cyberattack on a hospital on behalf of the hacking activist group Anonymous to protest the treatment of a teenager in a high-profile custody dispute. Martin Gottesfeld was sentenced by US District Judge Nathaniel Gorton in Boston nearly three years after he was rescued from a disabled powerboat off the coast of Cuba by a Disney Cruise Line ship after fleeing the United States amid a federal investigation. A federal jury in August found him guilty of two counts, including conspiracy to damage protected computers related to cyberattacks he carried out in 2014 on Boston Children's Hospital and another facility.

(U) Spain – Police Seize Marijuana Heading to Netherlands, UK

(U) Madrid – Spanish police say they have seized 6,000 pounds of marijuana bound for the United Kingdom and the Netherlands. The Interior Ministry said in a statement today that Civil Guard officers in Barcelona arrested 25 people in the operation, which the ministry said was the largest-ever seizure of marijuana in Spain. The statement says the marijuana was grown and processed in Spain's northeastern region and then taken out of the country by truck. Police believe the gang was led by British and Dutch smugglers.
